

A private part of paradise ...

Lake Choconut is nestled in the center of over 700 acres of fields, woods, and footpaths. The private lake is about half a mile across, almost as wide, and its pristine waters have never seen a motorboat.

The quiet is enthralling, but make as much noise as you like until midnight—the two closest neighbors are across the lake and they are happy to have you visit the area.

Imagine a place far from the sounds of urban life, a place of privacy and beauty in Northeast Pennsylvania, less than four hours from Philadelphia and New York City; and about two hours from Syracuse and Albany.

Contact: Fred Lorber, Director
(651) 338-3042

fred.lorber@campchoconut.com

www.campchoconut.com/events.html

Your Special Event

at

Lake Choconut

Picture yourself and your friends at Lake Choconut—we can't wait until you get here!

A perfect day, in the perfect place ...

Weddings are special at Lake Choconut; with charming places of worship for almost all faiths within 30 minutes of our facility. A 100-year-old chapel is a short, 10-minute walk on a wooded path, yet accessible by car. You may choose to hold your ceremony in the Vista, the top of the wide lawn that leads to the private lake.

Let your imagination go—we can help you plan your event, or work with your professional planner to make sure everything is in place on your wedding day. Horse-drawn carriages, a heated tent, bonfires ... we want to make your dreams come true!

Lake Choconut is a special place for:

- ◆ Weddings
- ◆ Reunions
- ◆ Group Vacations
- ◆ Artistic Retreats
- ◆ School Field Trips
- ◆ Corporate Meetings and Retreats

Rates available upon request, starting at $15/person/night with a $1000 minimum.

Accommodations ...

We can sleep up to 80 people in the rustic cabins and the 150-year-old Winlock House. We also have lots of room for tents and campers. Those who do not wish to stay on-site have the choice of many fine hotels in Greater Binghamton.

Our 70+-year-old stone meeting house, Alumni End, can accommodate hundreds of people for a stand-up buffet and bar in the two rooms and on the full-length veranda. An intimate gathering works well in front of the five-foot tall fireplace.

The Dining Hall can seat up to 180 at a formal dinner and the restaurant-quality kitchen is easy to use, whether your group prefers communal cooking or enjoying a scrumptious meal prepared by a fine caterer.

We can recommend local caterers, equipment rental companies and other local business to help make your event easy to produce and successful.

www.campchoconut.com/events.html

For details, contact Fred Lorber: (651) 338-3042